DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-20 are pending in the application.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-8, 20, drawn to a method of altering a first gene expression pattern in an isolated multipotent adult progenitor cell (MAPC) comprising: introducing into a MAPC an exogenous polynucleotide molecule that comprises a targeting polynucleotide sequence homologous to a genomic DNA sequence of the MAPC and a donor sequence of interest, and culturing the MAPC under conditions to homologously recombine the exogenous polynucleotide molecule such a resultant MAPC has a second expression pattern different than the first gene expression pattern.

Group II, claims 9, 18 and 19, drawn to genetically altered MAPC comprising an exogenous polynucleotide homologously recombined into the genome of a MAPC and a differentiated cell arising from said MAPC.

Group III, claims 10-17, drawn to a method of correcting a genetic defect in a mammal, comprising culturing a MAPC from the mammal, introducing into a MAPC an exogenous polynucleotide molecule that comprises a targeting polynucleotide sequence homologous to a genomic DNA sequence of the MAPC and a donor sequence necessary for correcting said genetic defect, culturing the MAPC under conditions to homologously recombine the exogenous polynucleotide molecule, selecting said MAPC and transplanting said genetically altered MAPC into the mammal.

PCT Rule 13.2 requires that unity of invention exists only when the shared same or corresponding technical feature is a contribution over the prior art. The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept because they lack the same or corresponding special technical feature. The "special technical feature" of Group I is a MAPC comprising an exogenously incorporated sequence, which is shown by Hatada et al (PNAS, December 2000. Vol.97, No.25, pages 13807-13811, see page 13809, 1st col., 2nd paragraph, and Figure 2) to lack novelty or inventive step over the disclosed hematopoietic stem cells comprising HPRT, and does not make a contribution over the prior art. As such, this technical feature cannot link the invention as a whole to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
